Cheers for Weaver, Stewart and Newlands—A Celebration that was Out of Sight.

No such political demonstration as the one last evening was ever witnessed in this city.

Storey, Lyon, Washoe and Douglas joined Ormsby in a demonstration that was commensurate with the great victory of Tuesday last.

When the Virginia train arrived, the Comstock and Dayton Silver men headed by a band and carried a big boom, indicative of the clean sweep made.

A few minutes later Washoe rolled in, and there was a mingling of torches, and the crashing music of three bands, as cheer after cheer rent the air.

The hills about Carson were blazing with big bonfires and as the train reached the curve this side of the tunnel it was greeted by a huge brush bonfire at the Holstein ranch and the glare of rockets from the top of the tank tower. There was also a display of fireworks from the roof of the APPEAL office and red fire was kept burning during the parade.

The procession formed in the following order:

LINE OF MARCH.

Grand Marshall,

Ghost Dancers,

Carson Band,

Ormsby County Candidates,

Empire boat with fireworks,

Dayton Band,

Lyon County Silver Men,

Reno Band,

Washoe Silver Men,

Comstock Silver Men,

Ormsby County Silver Men.

A feature of the parade was the big Empire boat decorated with bunting, from which the fireworks were displayed.

The line was full of transparencies. The reporter caught the following:

WEAVER, STEWART AND NEWLANDS, THE SILVER CHAMPIONS.

NEVADA IS TRUE TO HER INTERESTS.

TAKE PARTNERS FOR THE GHOST DANCE.

WHO SUNK THE WALL STREET BARREL.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE COLOR OF ELLIS HAIR.

HIP! HIP! HURRAH FOR HUMBOLDT!

WE WELCOME THE WASHOE WORKERS.

HURRAH FOR STORRY SILVER MEN.

THREE CHEERS FOR LOYAL MEN OF LYON.

A picture of Coffin walking away with his grin, and Foley, Strother and Rickey as three dead ducks, hanging heads down, were greeted with roars of laughter.

There were pictures of Weaver, Field, Stewart and Newlands; also one of the "frog eaters," which drew cheers from the French hotel, and a lot of good hits at the local candidates.

The town was a blaze of bonfires from the depot to Olcovich's, and citizens let their lights shine all along the line of march in the shape of burning barrels and boxes.

There was nearly a mile of torches in line and Main street looked like a river of fire.

AT STEWART'S.

The immense crowd paused in front of Stewart's house and stretched the line to Jones' residence, and Stewart, Newlands and Jones were taken in a carriage to the Opera House.

George Nixon, Senator LaGrave, Senator Sharon and members of the Ormsby County Silver Central Committee were taken to the Opera House in a four-in-hand.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The audience that packed the Opera House filled it clear to the beautifully decorated stage, which was resplendent in beautiful colors, fine furniture, lamps, rugs, flowers, pictures and bric a brac, contributed by the free coinage ladies of Ormsby.

The streamers, Chinese lanterns and box decorations were done by Mr. James Meder.

A great American eagle, draped in the national colors, with outstretched wings, holding a silver dollar in his beak, was placed in front of the speakers' table.

When Senator Stewart and Congressman-elect Newlands were introduced, there was a roar of applause that was deafening.

They spoke amid continued interruptions of cheers.

Surveyor General Jones, Senator LaGrave, Hon. George Nixon, editor of the Winnemucca Silver State, Senator Sharon, Hon. Wm. Thompson, Senator Westfield and the editor of the APPEAL, also made short speeches, all of which were liberally applauded by the audience.

THE MUSIC.

The Comstock Glee Club gave several selections and the reception they got from the audience was simply terrific. People howled themselves hoarse in applauding.

Bob Davis gave a ghost dance solo to the tune of "Oh What a Difference in the Morning" and was uproariously cheered. It was as follows: On November the eighth the town is alive

At night, at night,

The old party bosses had struck a bee-hive

That night, that night.

The silver men gathered in knots on the street,

The Australian Ballot was working quite neat

We cleaned the gang up with both hands and two feet

That night, that night.

Chorus:

We packed the Silver ticket in the morning,

For we gave the grand old timely warning,

And the gang heard something drop

When the people got on top

To see a new administration dawning.

You see by the faces you see on the street

To night, to night,

That some are dissatisfied with their defeat

At night, at night.

But if candidates ran with that kind a crew

They surely got hurt with the fragments that flew

From the dynamite bomb-shell the Silver men threw

That night, that night.

Chorus.

We carried the ticket in spite the gang

At night, at night,

And if you'll permit me to utilize slang

To night, to night,

I'll tell you the reason they're silent and droop,

The Silver men yelled till they all got the crop,

But the old party bosses are sunk in the soup

Out of sight, out of sight.

Chorus.

The crowd kept the enthusiasm up until a late hour and left with rousing cheers from Ormsby county. All in all it was the grandest affair of the kind ever witnessed in Ormsby.

Court Machinery Blocked.

For several days past Judge Rising has not been in attendance at the District Court and the consequence is that crowds of witnesses and litigants come to attend court and are turned away.

No one knows where the Judge is and he cannot be found. His absence is causing great inconvenience and expense to a great many people and has become a source of mortification to Judge Rising's friends.

When the Wall street Philistines tried to capture Stewart, they made a great mistake sending that old politician bedlamite Strother to shear the locks of our "Silver Sampson."

When Russell Harrison went into journalism there was a great flourish of trumpets, as it was expected that he being the President's son his success would be instantaneous and lasting. Well, his paper in Helena has just been attacked by the Sheriff and the liabilities are $125,000. The fact that a man is the President's son cuts no figure in his capacity to run a newspaper. People are continually jumping into the newspaper business because their friends tell them that they ought to do it. Bitter experience alone tells them of the mistake.

We Don't Believe It.

New York, November 12.—A change has come over J. J. Maloney, one of the sand-lot orators of San Francisco. He has a voice like a fog horn, and a tongue like a clapper. He was brought on here from California by the Republican National Committee to go around the city, among the cafes, saloons, horse cars along the shore, telling people what a great party the Republican party was and how friendly it was to the Irish. His point was to get into an argument on politics somewhere, where a crowd was likely to congregate around him. His talk often got into the class called billingsgate and he depended upon this to make his opponent retire from the discussion. His loud voice has been heard in many parts of the city. The National Committee gave him $250 a week for using it freely. He felt bad enough when he learned that Harrison was defeated, but when the news came that California had gone Democratic he almost lost his voice entirely and he only talks in whispers now.

Thanksgiving Turkey Shooting.

Jim Wiggins has made preparations to have about 200 fat turkeys on hand in Empire for the annual 200 yard Thanksgiving shoot. On this occasion he has decided to knock the price of single shots down to 25 cents so that the whole community can get in, if they desire Shotgun shooting at chickens 45 yards will be served out at the same rate. No shot larger than No. 6 will be allowed in the shooting, and the chicken must be knocked prostrate. The expert wing shots of this section will have a chance to get in the pigeon shoot on the pool system.

Twelve dozen pigeons have been secured and good shots can make a haul easy. In the evening a masquerade ball and supper is on the program, and costumes can be secured at the hall. Plenty of stable room for visitors in vehicles and first class music will be on hand. N12td.
